Nazareth Achieves

through an efficient library staff of faculty and student leaders.

Nazareth Progresses

through a logical decimal classification of graduates and student activity.

Nazareth Supplements

through a library annex of under-classes.

Nazareth Succeeds

through an enterprising advertising section, presenting the 1938 "Lanthorn" library.

"In olden tymes, whan the sonne was to reste . . .

So gleamed ev'ry lanthorn clere thro the night"

Nazareth's "Lanthorn" is not a real lighted lantern swinging at the door of an inn or tavern to signify happiness, good health, and cheer within. It is a light, shining on the days of importance in one year at Nazareth, basically following our school motto, "The Lord is my Light." Accordingly, our year book is called "The Lanthorn."

Since Holman Hunt's "Light of the World" carries the twofold significance of Nazareth's motto and Nazareth's year book, it seemed well to us to include this picture as a keynote of the 1938 "Lanthorn."

Foreword

Perhaps the anniversary theme is the most fitting for any year book. This year, commemorating the three hundredth anniversary of the first American College Library, and the fiftieth of the first graduation from a library science school, we introduce to you Nazareth as a library. Following the Dewey Decimal System, we present Nazareth and Nazareth's daughters to you in this, the twenty-sixth volume of "The Lanthorn."

Pope Librarian

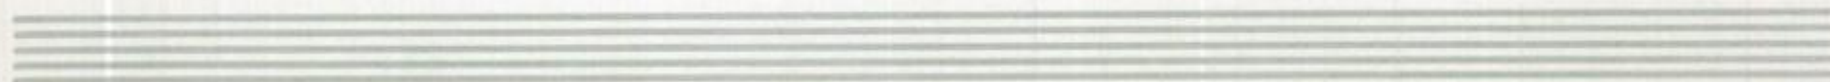

To the Class of 1922
of the
Nazareth Academy
with Apostolic Blessing
Pius P.P. XI

Since His Holiness Pope Pius XI is known as the Pope Librarian, he should be included in a book wholly dedicated to the library theme. We are glad, then, to repeat this cut used in two former books since Pope Pius so graciously sent his apostolic blessing to the Class of 1922. With this edition of the "Lanthorn" go the prayers of the Class of 1938 for the many intentions of His Holiness.

Dedication

In recognition of

The Most Reverend James Edward Kearney, D.D., Bishop of Rochester, New York . . . with esteem and gratitude for his help spiritually, socially, and academically . . . and with sincere admiration for his achievements during the short months he has been with us . . . we, the Class of 1938 of Nazareth Academy, with reverent appreciation dedicate this twenty-sixth volume of "The Lanthorn."

To

Most Reverend James E. Kearney, D. D.

In Memoriam

SISTER M. ANGELINA

Died May 28, 1937

Through the faculty and alumnae we have learned of the long devoted service of Sister Angelina to Nazareth in the Latin and Math departments. During these years Sister Angelina had a smile and a friendly word and a bit of good counsel for all here at Nazareth. For a few months at the beginning of our Junior year the art students had the privilege of having her for teacher. Then illness claimed her and on May 28, 1937, she was called home to God. The sincere prayers of the Class of 1938 are offered for her that she "may rest in peace."

In Memoriam

SISTER CLARA JOSEPH

Died October 2, 1937

The Feast of the Guardian Angels marked the passing of Sister Clara Joseph, for thirty years a teacher of French at Nazareth. Failing health forced her to give up active teaching, so in her last year she presided over study divisions. Always, her sole thought was in helping those near her. Help, too, we know she is giving us now from her home in heaven.

ARCHBISHOP HICKEY

Instructor in Religion IV

To Archbishop Hickey, our instructor in Religion IV, we, the Class of 1938, extend our sincere gratitude and appreciation. For the time he has spent in our midst and the interest he has shown in our religious welfare we are truly thankful. He has strengthened the invincible weapon of faith in our religion to aid us in facing the world. His knowledge of sainthood has given us an appreciation for God's Holy Saints and impressed upon us the necessity of "conversation with God" to make faith forever strong. To him, indeed, we owe a debt of gratitude.

FATHER O'ROURKE

Instructor in Religion I, II, III

As our freshman teacher his earnestness was evident; our sophomore year proved him a friend indeed; as juniors, he appeared an understanding companion; and now as seniors we recognize him as one to whom we may carry our troubles. Devout at the altar, earnest in the class room, understanding and sympathetic in his work as our spiritual adviser, and helpful in hour of need—is Father O'Rourke.

"Lanthorn" Leadership

For many years Sister M. Teresina had been the inspiration of the "Lanthorn," assistant in the library, and a teacher of English. We, the Class of '38, are greatly indebted to her, for through her hard work and sacrifice, our year books have won many honors. We have not forgotten her accomplishments, especially in our Freshman and Sophomore years. Now, that through illness she is no longer at Nazareth, we keep her in memory with the publishing of the "Lanthorn."

SISTER M. TERESINA

SISTER AGNES VINCENT

As We Like It

It was in our Sophomore year that Sister Agnes Vincent taught us literature. From her help we learned to love poetry, novels, short stories, and to use the library intelligently. Now, that Sister is on leave of absence because of ill health, we miss her and her constant interest. We are fortunate in having for a friend Sister Agnes Vincent.

Just as the harvest of the years is contained in the General Works in a library, so, too, the harvest of the years of a school is in its graduates. Althea Osterman and Margaret Hannan represent the General Works of the Class of 1938.

Mission Activities

Just as the library is a helpful friend to those seeking spiritual and material advancement through its philosophical and religious works, so, too, Nazareth through its many religious activities has helped us. Mildred Magin and Gertrude Peter symbolize religion.

The Seniors

On Being First—

First in order in school life come the Seniors. First in order, to this Class of 1938 have come many things for which we are grateful. To have for the "Lanthorn" a personal greeting from our Bishop, to have had a Senior Mass and Communion Day in the convent chapel, to have been invited by Reverend Mother Superior to spend the Patronage of St. Joseph at Nazareth Motherhouse are all "first" things granted to us. Besides this, the 1938 Perosians are the first to present a velvet stage curtain to the school; and Le Cercle Français first to present a French play in the evening. In our Freshman year the first permanent chapel was opened at Nazareth. In that year, too, the first edition of the Sodality news, the "Queen's Herald," was issued. First, too, are we to use a library theme for a Year Book and to present the Seniors to you, in keeping with our theme, according to "Who's Who." These, then, are the "first things" for which we give thanks.

Feast of St. Robert Bellarmine

My dear Children of the Class of 1938.

The "Lancthorn" gives me a very welcome opportunity of congratulating you upon the completion of your high school work. I pray that the blessing of God may follow you into your new fields of endeavor. I sincerely trust that you will have the wisdom to pursue your education in the same atmosphere of religion and culture that has made your days at Nazareth academy so happy.

Your devoted father in Christ—

MAGIC HIGHWAY TO ADVENTURE

Book Week Project, November, 1937

"When we'll meet next, we'll have a tale to tell."

Dorothy and Mildred have chosen the same book; but Roberta and little Joan have individual preferences.

Library Science

1. Charge It, Please

Shirley Beaucaire plays librarian for these seniors.

2. The Questioning Mind

Bernadine, Loretta, Virginia, and Clementine are deciding just where to look for what.

1. Selling Library Values

Monica, Helen, and Mary Lou prepare for an English assignment.

2. Byways in Bookland

A group of Seniors earnestly exploring science, history, languages, and whatnot before the bell rings.

Journalism—The Lanthorn Staff

1. Subscription Day

Santina and Anna take "Lanthorn" payments from Mildred, little Kathryn, and Anne.

2. Picture Progress

Dorothy shows Phyllis, Jeannette, Monica and Mary how to plan the Senior pictures.

3. Lanthorn Staff in Action

2. Putting the News in Print

Mary Lou, Geraldine, June and Doris are typing articles to go to press while Rita scans the arrangement of articles for the next edition.

3. Front Page News

Religion

"Wisdom hath built herself a house."

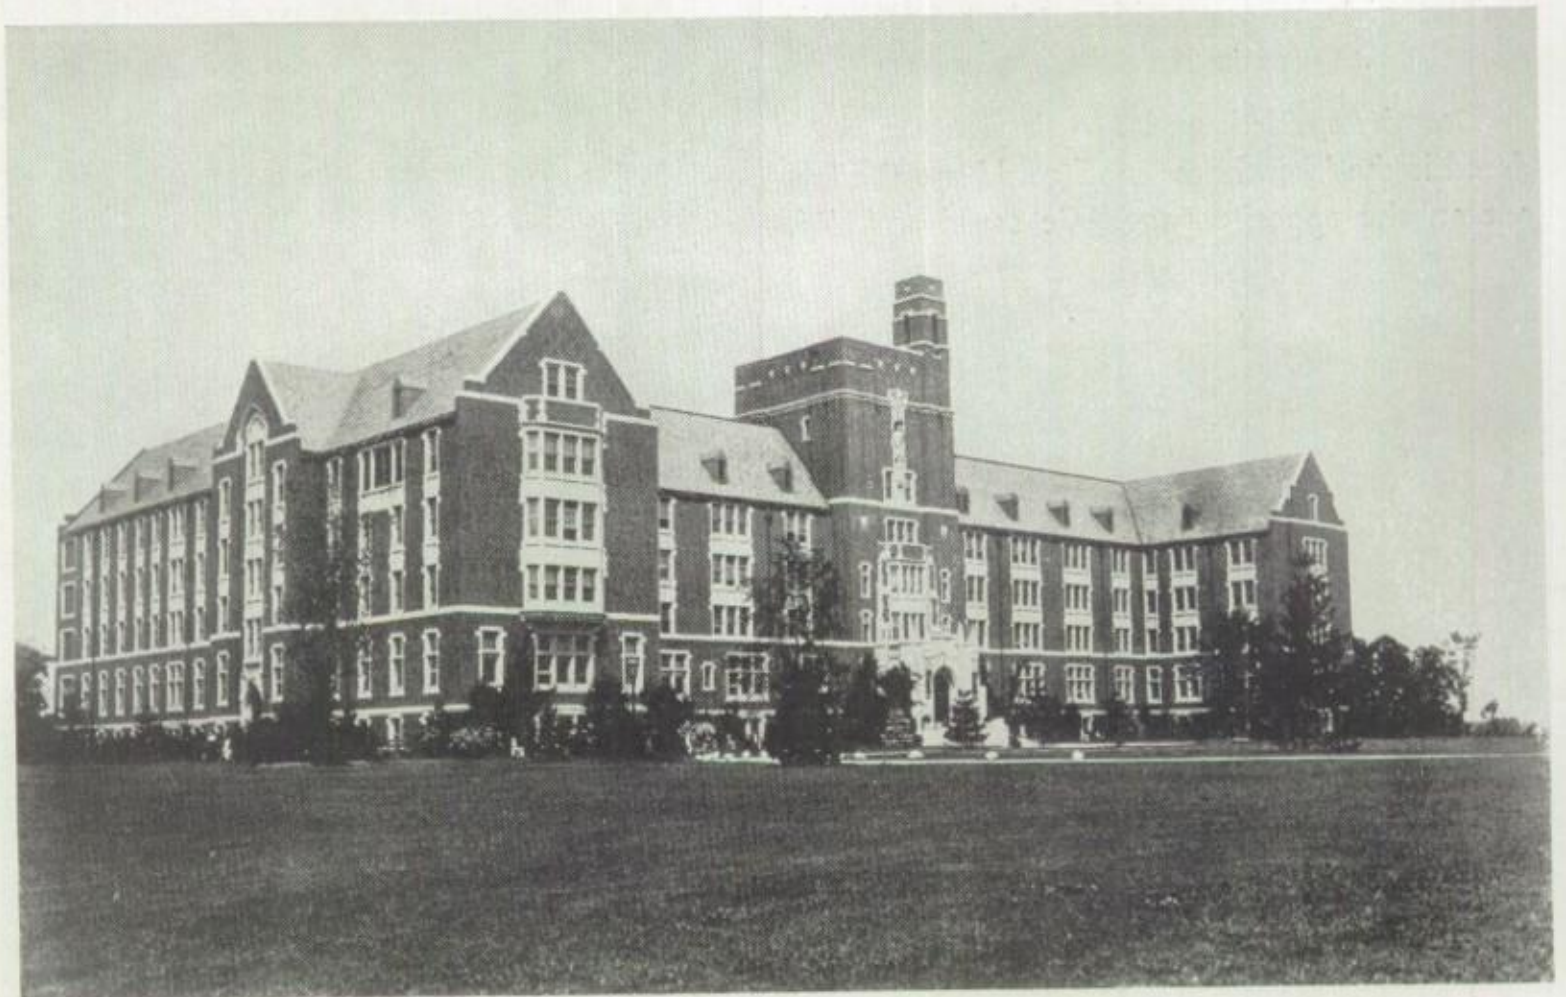

The first Nazareth Academy on Jay Street where ten members of the 1938 faculty obtained their religious training.

The present Nazareth Academy where fifteen members of the 1938 faculty received their education.

The present Motherhouse on East Avenue where forty-three graduates of Nazareth Academy are making their religious novitiate.

Permanent Chapel

"Pop calls" for nuns, big girls, small girls, visitors, alumnae,—all give honor to the Eucharistic King in Nazareth's permanent chapel. From the early morning Mass, offered by Father Dempsey, till late afternoon there is scarcely a moment when someone is not visiting Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament.

We of '38 can well remember when there was no chapel. It was in the fall of our Freshman year that Archbishop Edward Mooney gave his permission for the chapel and came to open it officially. The Class of '38 give hearty thanks to Archbishop Edward Mooney, now of Detroit, for the spiritual benefits derived from the chapel.

First Friday At Nazareth

First Friday at Nazareth means eight o'clock Mass, followed by exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, noonday devotions led by Sodality officers, a sermon at two thirty, and finally Benediction. The speakers for the afternoon service for 1937-1938 were as follows:

October	RT. REVEREND MONSIGNOR CHARLES F. SHAY
November	RT. REVEREND MONSIGNOR GEORGE V. BURNS
December	FATHER LEONARD KELLEY
January	FATHER DANIEL O'ROURKE
February	FATHER WILLIAM AYRES
March	FATHER EUGENE GOLDING
April	FATHER LEO MOONEY
May	FATHER THOMAS MANLEY
June	FATHER ARTHUR FLORACK

The Class of 1938 take with them lessons of faith, hope, and charity taught them in the presence of Christ the King on some thirty-odd First Fridays from September, 1934, to June, 1938.

The Sisters' Chapel on Christmas Eve

Some of us visited the Sisters' Chapel during the Christmas vacation. All of our Seniors assisted at the Mass and received Holy Communion there on March 26. Bishop Kearney's memorable talk on Our Lady made this another of Nazareth's "Red Letter Days." Afterwards, we had Communion Breakfast in the school cafeteria.

See us kneeling now—
We would learn to love Thee—

Leaders All—Our Sodality Prefects

MARGARET WORTHINGTON '35

"I like to 'hob-nob' with the elect of our Lady. After Nazareth, I spent a year in the Sodality at Nazareth College, have been a member of my parish Sodality for six years, and have recently assisted Rochester Parish Sodality Union in editing their 'Sodal-talk' column in the 'Catholic Courier.' You'll enjoy doing your duty in your parish, Sodalists."

RUTH MCKINNEY '36

"'Once a Sodalist always a Sodalist.' In the field of nursing to which I have aspired, the Sodality is the center of all activity, both spiritual and temporal. Although limited in its operations by the routine of the training school, it is our governing force of activity. As secretary of the Sodality of St. Mary's Nursing School, it is my cherished hope to continue Catholic Action which became so much a part of me at Nazareth Academy."

MARY BEMISH '37

"Sodality work is the most comforting, and inspirational of any I have ever attempted. It demands one's very best efforts but repays in full for whatever is done. This year at Nazareth College, I have been continuing it in a small way through the Marian Committee of the Sodality. In this committee we make an extensive study of the Blessed Virgin as the Mother of God, realizing that Her position in the Church is all based on the fact that she is the Mother of God."

MARGARET G. WEGMAN '38

"To be Prefect of the Sodality, to work with that religious organization, to have the splendid support of all its members, to participate in Catholic Action, to be considered a child of Mary made this year of 1937-38 indeed a happy one. To my associates, a sincere word of thanks."

Scientific Exhibition

This exhibit by Modern History Students shows scientific progress in recent years. It was prepared by Helen, Caroline, Catherine, Mary, Margaret and Alvera. The comparative study of science yesterday and today made this exhibit by Sister Miriam's pupils most interesting.

Other activities of the Thucydians have been: drawing up of a constitution, adoption of constitution, a play, lecture on Japan by Mrs. Lawrence Weis and a final meeting and party.

By linking the history of yesterday and today in the fields of religion, science, politics, art and economics, these students receive a firm foundation for the understanding of today's problems.

"It is the glory and goods of Art that Art remains the one way possible of speaking truth."

BROWNING.

Christian Art Exhibit

From the Rundel Memorial Library, the Art Museum at Edgerton Park, and the Monroe County Museum of Art, came the material for this Christian Art Exhibit. Thryza, Marjorie, Katherine, Philomena, Alice and Eileen study the results of their searching with satisfaction. Projects like these make History A a fascinating subject for these sophomores. In Room 207, under Sister Rose Eileen's direction, they have learned the inspiration of Christian symbolism.

School-spirited Freshmen

For the Juniors, Sophomores, and Freshmen at Nazareth, Eileen Ingerick and Margaret Walthers represent the trend of fine literature through the pictured books "Brother Petroc's Return" and "The Man Who Was Chesterton."

Supplements

Children's Department

Grammar School

Seniors, too, have interest in easy books. For the Grammar Department who are "little at Nazareth when everyone else is big," Virginia Crawford has "Six O'Clock Saints," while Mary Jane Maid holds "The Canticle of the Three Children."
